there in 2000.

It was also cold, rainy, windy, and cloudy this weekend at the lake...until mid-afternoon Sunday. The day dawned lovely and clear with very little breeze, but by mid-morning there were waves on the lake, the clouds were overhead, and the wind had freshened. The few campers that were at Rimrock Campground were of hardy stock - they needed to be!

The town's population will begin to swell later on this week as people come for the big centennial celebration. It's going to be fun to see who wins the beard contest, and I'm sure there will
